

Edward Geis, Ph.D.

Work Experience

Headwaters Writing & Design, Founder and Principal (1999-present)

Responsible for all facets of running a small communications consulting business in Camden, Maine. Duties include:

- graphic design
- strategic planning
- writing and editing
- web site development and programming
- training
- print production management
- customer relations
- marketing
- bookkeeping and office management

University of Utah, Instructor (1991-1998)

Taught undergraduate writing and literature courses in Salt Lake City, Utah while earning a doctorate in literature.

Bear Basin Ranch, Wilderness Guide and Wrangler (1987-1989)

Guided horsepacking trips in Sangre de Cristo Mountains, cared for horses on guest ranch in Custer County, Colorado.

Education

Ph.D, University of Utah (1999)

Completed doctorate program in British and American Literature; wrote dissertation on American literature, conservation, and ecology.

B.A., Colorado College (1989)

Majored in English.